NEW POLICE OFFICERS

On June 29th, Ben Edwards, Jerry Bennet and Martin Friedman of the Lefferts Manor Association Board, met with a new group of Police Officers assigned to the 71st Precinct. They welcomed them to their new post and told them about the history of our neighborhood. The new officers will be assigned mainly to Flatbush and Ocean Avenues and the adjacent cross streets.

RUTLAND II IS A WINNER

The first week of June brought two winners to Rutland II. On June 10th Andy Hamingson, Managing Director of the Atlantic Theater Company, won a Tony Award as Producer of the Best Musical "Spring Awakening". On June 15, Maggie Delgado won her third or fourth (who's counting?) Emmy Award as Costume Designer for "As the World Turns".

The Lefferts Manor Association was founded in 1919 to maintain and improve our historic neighborhood, enforce the restrictive one-family dwelling covenant, and bring together residents for their better acquaintance and mutual benefit.

If you're not a member join now.

I (we) subscribe to LMA's efforts to improve our neighborhood and continue it as a community of single-family homes.

The 37th Annual Prospect Lefferts Gardens House & Garden Tour

on June 3rd, sponsored by the Lefferts Manor Association, was, as usual, a great success. The weather was a bit threatening, but rain held off until almost the end of the tour and did not prevent near record attendance including, for the first time, two Long Island tour groups.

Many thanks to Tour Coordinator Carole Shaffer, who outdid herself by having her own wonderful home on tour in addition to running the show. Thanks also to the over one hundred neighborhood volunteers who made the tour possible.

From our contact person at the L. I. Chapter of the Brooklyn College Alumni Association:

"What a lovely way to spend a Sunday! We all enjoyed the tour; loved the homes, the moldings, the parquet floors, the camaraderie of the people. The refreshments were not only so welcome after going from house to house and up and down stairs, but soooo delicious! Thank you so much..."

PLG ARTS PRESENTS DAYDREAM IN IMAGINATION PLAYGROUND

The Second annual PLG Arts' production of Shakespeare's A Midsummer Night's Dream, titled Daydream and adapted for children of all ages, was presented every Saturday and Sunday in July.

When a group of construction workers come to rehearse a play in the Imagination Playground in Prospect Park - they stumble into a battle between the King and Queen of the Fairies. Magic, puppets, hard hats & safety vests - what more could any Brooklyn kid want?

Those responsible for this wonderful production were:

Direction: Rohana Elias-Reyes

Production Design: Sara Heymont, Natasha Stevens

Production Manager: Scott Shay

Drummer: Dominique Josephs

With: Amy Chang, Elizabeth Day, Sean Kenin*, Lynda Kennedy*, Justin Maruri*, Maire-Rose Pike*, Nikole Williams (*Actors appearing courtesy of Actors' Equity Association.)

PLG Arts promotes the arts, supports local artists, and builds community through celebrating the vibrant collective creativity of Prospect Lefferts Gardens and surrounding Brooklyn neighborhoods.
